

Enlightened Leadership Program

Presents:

Mostly Music Summer Series

Join us at Maharishi University of Management in July and August for the Mostly Music Summer Series. This series features various bands and artists from around the region, performing a wide variety of music, plus presentations by special guest speakers.

Dalby Hall, Argiro Student Center
July 28 - Aug 2, 2013 8:00 pm to 9:30 pm

Sunday, July 28

Rick Stanley and Tim Britton

Hailed as "a phenomenon" by Time magazine, Tim Britton is renowned as one of the leading players of the Irish uilleann pipes, one of the sweetest and most complex bagpipes. Rick is a Ballad Singer/Songwriter/Harper/Guitarist and a veteran Celtic Bard. A world-class musician who performed with greats like Paul Horn & Steven Stills. Rick has recorded seven albums & most recently his own CelticHarps indie label which has just released "Once Upon a Dream" called "Most beautiful CD of the year" by Rolling Stones magazine.

Monday, July 29

Dr. Craig Pearson

Flying Throughout Time with Dr Craig Pearson, Executive Vice-President of Maharishi University of Management in Fairfield, Iowa. He holds a PhD in Maharishi Vedic Science from MUM and is the author of two books on the development of full human potential.

Tuesday, July 30

Prudence Farrow Bruns

The "Dear Prudence" story. The meditative muse for the Beatles "Dear Prudence" offers a glimpse into the past with her personal insights and stories of her well publicized time in India with Maharishi and the Beatles.

Wednesday, July 31

Dr. Nancy Lonsdorf

The Top Five Secrets of Healthy Cosmic Relationships, with Nancy Lonsdorf. Named "one of the nation's most prominent Ayurvedic doctors" by the Chicago Tribune, Nancy Lonsdorf, M.D. is a popular speaker, author and recognized Ayurvedic expert specializing in healthy longevity and women's health issues.

Thursday, August 1

Dr. Fred Travis

Dr. Frederick Travis, director of the Center for Brain, Consciousness and Cognition at Maharishi University of Management is a world renowned brain scientist and will be exploring the relationship between the mind, physiology, and consciousness.

Saturday, August 3

All Souls on Deck

All Souls on Deck is a lyric-driven ensemble creating love songs on the art of living a full and conscious life. Equally comfortable in listening rooms, churches, and house concerts or holding court on a large festival stage, All Souls' repertoire of original music and select covers by the likes of Switchfoot, Joni Mitchell, Bob Dylan & Patti Griffin, welcomes all listeners to the church of "Everything is Love."

ADMISSION: Students FREE, Community $6

All Evening Event Pass: $20

Available at MUM Bookstore

We thank Christina Revolinski and her team at Village Realty for their generous support