Courtyard Indianapolis Carmel Revs Up Race Fans With Complimentary Breakfast

Guests of the Carmel, Indiana, hotel can enjoy the Brickyard 400 on a full stomach while staying in newly renovated rooms

Indianapolis, IN – Indiana traditions can only get better with a special offer from the Courtyard Indianapolis Carmel that will fuel the fun at one of the state's biggest events.

The hotel near the Indianapolis Motor Speedway has a special for race fans who attend the NASCAR Brickyard 400 on July 27-28, 2013. Enthusiasts who stay at the Indianapolis hotel on Friday and Saturday will receive free breakfast at The Bistro - Eat. Drink. Connect.

The Brickyard 400, just a short drive from the hotel in Carmel, is the final event in a full race weekend. Visitors can catch rising stars in the Nationwide Indiana 250 on Saturday and four-time champ Jimmie Johnson and Indiana native and two-time race winner Tony Stewart on Sunday in the Brickyard 400. Visitors headed to the Brickyard 400 will experience side-by-side racing with drivers speeding around the track at almost 200 mph.

After all of the excitement at the track, race fans will love the convenience, modern touches and comfortable accommodations -- as well as the silence -- at the Carmel, Indiana hotel.

Visitors will appreciate renovated guest rooms at the Courtyard Indianapolis Carmel, which have new bedding and spacious bathrooms. Guests will get a sound night's sleep on one king or two queen beds topped with crisp linens, custom comforters and plenty of fluffy pillows. Coffeemakers and 27-inch flat-screen TVs with premium channels are among the amenities that travelers can enjoy. Complimentary Wi-Fi in rooms and throughout the hotel lets travelers plan their days at the speedway or even finish some work.

Guests can fuel up for their big race days at The Bistro, which has raised the hotel's dining standard with menus featuring seasonal fruits, burgers, pizzas, salads and sandwiches made from the freshest ingredients. The café-style eatery features flat-screen TVs and plenty of comfortable seating, with a large communal table designed for families and small groups of business travelers or individual bar stools where diners can sip on freshly brewed Starbucks drinks. The Bistro also offers a number of craft, domestic and imported beers at night and has a bartender on duty to whip up a custom cocktail.

Visitors staying for the race near the Carmel, IN, hotel can return the next weekend for the Indiana State Fair, which runs Aug. 2-18 and is only a 15- to 20-minute drive down the road. The fair will delight kids of all ages with a Midway for games and rides, exhibits and livestock in multiple pavilions. Visitors also will get to see the world's largest popcorn ball, which will be unveiled and weighed on Aug 3. A demolition derby highlights the fair's final day.

Take advantage of the special for the Brickyard 400 by using promotional code LPR when booking online or calling 1-800-228-9290.
