Courtyard Mexico City Airport Celebrates First-Year Accomplishments, Accolades

Mexico City hotel earns top honors from Marriott, high praises from guests

Mexico City, Mexico – The Courtyard Mexico City Airport has soared to grand heights and raised the bar for hotels in Mexico City in its first year of operation.

The Mexico City airport hotel has been honored with first place awards for services, facilities, Internet connection speed and stability; as well as the Marriott Rewards member appreciation in the Courtyard brand's Caribbean and Latin America region. The hotel received second place in overall staff services and has set its sights on finishing 2013 with all first places for the brand.

“I am so proud of my staff members here and all of their accomplishments since we opened our property April 1 last year right next the Mexico City international airport,” said David Gauna, general manager. “I am delighted that our staff and services exceed Marriott's standards, but I'm even more excited that our guests find our amenities and accommodations exceptional. They are the reason, day in and day out, that we work as hard as we do.”

Earning quality praise from guests has regularly landed the Courtyard in the top 10 of 258 Mexico City hotels on TripAdvisor. The hotel in Mexico City has ranked as high as No. 9 with comments such as “the best night's stay I have ever had in Mexico City,” “definitely the nicest Courtyard I have ever stayed in” and “great rooms, location and staff.” Guests praised the hotel for its convenient and quiet location despite being located in front of the airport, ultra-modern décor and design, friendly and English-speaking staff, reasonable rates and safe sky bridge that connects the hotel directly to Terminal 1 at Benito Juarez International Airport.

“We strive to be the best choice for travelers who require a stay near the airport,” Gauna said. “Our facilities and amenities are designed for the comfort of our guests.”

As one of the premier hotels in Mexico City, the Courtyard offers day room rates for guests who do not need to spend the night but want to relax in style or freshen up before a flight. The hotel's 288 spacious guest rooms feature complimentary high-speed Internet access, 32-inch LCD flat-screen TVs with HD channels and comfortable king and double beds topped with cotton-rich sheets and plenty of down and feather pillows. Visitors who do spend a night or more can take advantage of dry cleaning and laundry services as well as 24-hour room service from the onsite restaurant.

The Centro offers a large selection of international dishes for breakfast, lunch and dinner as well as in-room dining. Famished guests can order a number of sandwiches, burgers, soups and appetizers as well as enjoy coffee and craft, domestic and imported beers. The Mexico City airport hotel also has a 24-hour Market so guests can grab a quick snack or pick up the toothpaste they might have forgotten to pack.

Travelers can keep their regular exercise routines even on vacation or a business trip by enjoying the 24-hour fitness center with state-of-the-art Life Fitness equipment, free weights and benches. The Mexico City hotel offers several cozy spaces including a lobby sitting area, spacious atrium and private travelers' lounge to catch up with friends, meet business clients or simply read a good book on an electronic device while enjoying complimentary wireless Internet access.
