

38th Annual National Association of
Hispanic Nurses® Conference

Creating the VISION  Shaping the FUTURE

Healthcare Reform | Facing Challenges | Innovation for Hispanics

August 6-9, 2013 | Astor Crowne Plaza | New Orleans | www.nahnnet.org

If you are a Latino nurse or work with Latino patients, you don't want to miss this event!

Join the National Association of Hispanic Nurses (NAHN) at the 38th Annual Conference in New Orleans, LA this August– the foremost event uniting the nursing profession with Hispanic health challenges to identify issues, trends and solutions. Advance your practice with clinical sessions and poster presentations, expand your professional and personal networks, improve your knowledge of cutting edge products and services and rejuvenate in lively New Orleans in preparation for another successful year.

Our program is designed for nurses, nurse educators, researchers, clinicians, nursing students and anyone interested in learning about successful best practices in nursing and related research as it correlates with Hispanic Health issues.
