Market Leader in Service Management Applications

Environmental Testing Consultants Select Alert Software to Streamline Their Project Management Processes

Toronto, ON - July 26, 2013 Fieldpoint Service Applications Inc. announced today that an environmental consulting company specializing in testing air emissions, has selected Alert Software as their Project Management platform. Alert Software will streamline their project tasks, resource scheduling, time and expense capture, as well as, their reporting processes. Alert Software will integrate to Microsoft Outlook, QuickBooks and Paychex to provide a unified Project solution.

"Once you have upwards of 20 employees, the ability to collect project activities like time and tasks become an administrative nightmare". says Mike Mance, Partner and Chief Marketing Officer at Fieldpoint Service Applications. "Alert Software is configured to do all the heavy lifting, so managing regulatory compliances around labor and tax becomes a non-issue".

Alert Software will Streamline the Project Management Processes:

- Project Management – Tracking and Costing
- Resource Assignment and Scheduling
- Time and Expense Collection
- Portals for Clients, Vendors and Subcontractors
- Billing
