

How To Make Him Desire You: Review Reveals Alex Carter's "Impulsive Desire Formula"

SUMMARY: ConquerHisHeart.com releases a critical review of How To Make Him Desire You a newly launched home training course that promises to teach women the secrets to triggering "addictive love" in a man.

"How To Make Him Desire You has quickly become one of the year's most talked about personal development courses for women," reports Sean Roman from ConquerHisHeart.com. "However, unlike many traditional self-help dating guides, the How To Make Him Desire You program is heavy on technique, offering a targeted 'formula' for accessing what the author refers to as the 'impulsive part' of a man's mind, and then winning his heart. Since our website's primary goal is to disseminate information on this very topic, we were eager to publish a review of the course for our readers."

How To Make Him Desire You is the brainchild of Alex Carter a professional pick up artist and student of attraction who has declared his commitment to helping as many women as possible to learn these rather unconventional methods.

Roman's review shares his take on the program's overnight popularity:

"while Alex Carter is undoubtedly talented when it comes to explaining the inner workings of a man's mind," says Roman. "I think the thing that is really getting people excited about How To Make Him Desire You is the fact that he's talking about desire that is extremely intense. This course isn't about how to catch a guy's eye, or make him like you. It's about sending adrenaline spikes through his body, and making his heart pound with emotionally addictive love. We've reviewed plenty of 'self-help' guides, but we've never seen anything that even touched on this subject matter."

In addition to the How To Make Him Desire You ebook, customers also receive access to an audio version of the course as well as several bonuses including a report on how to fascinate a man by triggering something called "positive discomfort" that causes him to experience feelings of raw and intense love.
