Courtyard San Francisco Airport/Oyster Point Waterfront Wins TripAdvisor Award

Top guest reviews help South San Francisco hotel win 2013 Certificate of Excellence honor

South San Francisco, CA – The West Coast has just gotten just a tad bit hotter thanks to the spotlight being shined on the Courtyard San Francisco Airport/Oyster Point Waterfront for earning a prestigious honor from the world's largest travel website.

The San Francisco Airport hotel has received a 2013 Certificate of Excellence from TripAdvisor for maintaining an overall rating of four or higher on a scale of five as ranked by travelers. The number of reviews received in the last 12 months also played a factor in presenting the award, now in its third year. TripAdvisor sees more than 50 million unique monthly visitors and sports more than 60 million reviews and opinions on businesses related to the tourism industry.

Guests praised the hotel in South San Francisco for its “great location” and “nice views of the bay.” Other guests said it would be “hard to find better service” and the “lobby is very new and nice with many places to relax.” Guest sdphil of Solana Beach, California, said the hotel is “my favorite suburban Courtyard in the San Francisco area. It's convenient to the airport and the city.” HaddockUK from the UK enjoyed the service by the “front desk team members who are as helpful as any hotel I stayed in.”

These comments from guests put a warm smile on the face of Courtyard San Francisco Airport/Oyster Point Waterfront General Manager Mark Jenkins.

“We are extremely pleased that guests of our hotel take comfort in our well-appointed rooms, convenient services and hard-working associates,” Jenkins said. “We constantly strive to exceed expectations and remain dedicated to offering the highest level of service with the warmest smiles. We very much appreciate our guests for their constant support and positive feedback.”
