Belvoir Federal Wins Two Awards in the 2013 GMA Competition

Woodbridge, VA, August 23, 2013 — Belvoir Federal Credit Union was recently awarded with two honors from the Credit Union Executive Society (CUES) Golden Mirror Awards (GMA), a national competition between hundreds of credit unions based on campaigns implemented in the previous year.

CUES, who presented the awards to Belvoir Federal's Marketing Department, represents an international association of credit union executives who have provided professional development over the past 50 years.

In the Annual Reports category, Belvoir Federal won an award of merit for the 2012 Annual Report publication. The second award was in the Staff Training Programs category for the 2012 Annual Employee Training Conference.

For more information about these awards, visit www.cuesgma.org.
