Trumbull Marriott Merritt Parkway Offers Unparalleled Dining, Comfort With New Deal

Hotel in Trumbull features culinary retreat with dinner, breakfast for two as well as deluxe accommodations

Trumbull, CT – Travelers making their way through the great state of Connecticut have two more reasons to stop, fuel up and rest in comfort at the Trumbull Marriott Merritt Parkway.

The renovated hotel in Trumbull is offering its Experience A Culinary Retreat at Parallel Post Package that includes deluxe accommodations from $179 to $199 per night plus dinner and breakfast for two at the city's newest restaurant. The deal includes a dinner entrée, dessert and nonalcoholic beverage during the evening and breakfast in the waking hours.

Parallel Post is headed by award-winning Chef Dean James Max, who takes guests on a culinary journey they will never forget. The Trumbull restaurant has adopted the modern farm-to-table restaurant. Max uses all-natural meats, local produce and products with no fillers or preservatives. By choosing local ingredients, the restaurant can showcase flavors at their peak using great new combinations diners will love. Max showcases his culinary skills with a daily changing menu. Popular entrees include Georges Bank scallops, pineapple-glazed shrimp and grilled beef tenderloin.

Max is president of DJM Restaurants, a company that specializes in restaurant concept and ongoing management. The portfolio of his organization includes the flagship 3030 Ocean at the Harbor Beach Marriott Resort in Fort Lauderdale, Fla.; Brasserie in the Cayman Islands, Amp 150 in Cleveland and Latitude 41 in Columbus, Ohio and Asador in Dallas. Gourmet Magazine has called Max's modern American cuisine "stylish" and "tongue-tingling," and the James Beard Foundation has recognized him as a "Great Regional Chef of America."

Besides having one of the finest options for dining in Trumbull, the Marriott features well-appointed rooms where guests will feel relaxed and comfortable after a hearty meal. The high-tech accommodations feature high-speed Internet access (for an additional fee) and 27-inch flat-screen TVs with premium movie channels so guests can wind down before heading to bed in one king or two double beds topped with luxurious down comforters, custom duvets, cotton-rich linens and plenty of fluffy down and feather pillows. In-room safes, mini-refrigerators, coffeemakers, large desks with ergonomic chairs, irons and ironing boards and Bath and Body Works products in bathrooms are among other high-end amenities that will pamper visitors during their Connecticut stays.

For travelers looking to maintain their daily routines even while on vacation, a state-of-the-art fitness center provides elliptical machines, treadmills and stationary bikes as well as free weights for the ultimate workout. The indoor pool is perfect for a relaxing dip anytime, while the outdoor resort-setting pool is available seasonally.

The Experience A Culinary Retreat at Parallel Post Package is valid Thursday through Sunday through Aug. 31, 2013. Visitors should use promotional code P51 when booking online or calling 1-800-228-9290.
