Hear It From Our Customers & Partners...

“When I decided to digitally archive thousands of family photos dating back to the early 20th century and continuing through the 1990’s, I researched and tested several companies before finally choosing FotoBridge. I can easily say I made the right decision ...not just because of the quality of the results, but also because of the prompt, courteous service I always received.”

Jon Landau, Academy Award Winning Producer

“I needed some of my most important slides professionally scanned. After researching, I came upon FotoBridge. Their service was professional, quick and they did an excellent job scanning my work. The scans were clean, sharp and color was excellent. I recommend them without any hesitation.”

Allen Rokach, Prominent Photographer and Photojournalist

“The service at FotoBridge was terrific. Friendly, professional, and prompt – their offerings are priced competitively and they produced high quality results. Conveniently stored on discs, I can now slip selected histories of my production into my coat pocket. I’ve put books on the bookcases.”

Archie Rand, World Renowned Artist

“We are so excited about our alliance with the team at FotoBridge, it provides every APPO member across North America the opportunity to call upon a nationally trusted service to help grow their local business and succeed. ...exceptional, high quality services delivered by a team of the most dedicated, capable and trusted partners possible.”
