Step into a Fairytale at Newport Beach Marriott Hotel & Spa

The Newport Beach luxury hotel displays newly renovated rose garden terrace

Newport Beach, CA – If a picture is worth 1,000 words, the views from the rose garden terrace at the Newport Beach Marriott Hotel & Spa could write a book.

A $1 million renovation has expanded the Newport Beach luxury hotel’s garden, rebuilt the gazebo and positioned it to maximize the golf course and ocean views. The 7,000-square-foot area accommodates up to 500 people.

Finished in spring 2013 and opened June 19, this outdoor ballroom is the ideal setting for Newport Beach weddings and other social events. No matter what the occasion, the newly planted mature roses provide the perfect backdrop for any special Newport Beach event. The luxury Newport Beach hotel now offers more than 40,000 square feet of indoor and outdoor event space, and the rose garden terrace can be easily transformed into the perfect fairytale landscape, making it one of the exemplary Newport Beach wedding venues.

“We really wanted to create an environment that is beautiful, professional and elegant so our guests can feel relaxed yet spoiled,” said Debbie Snavelly, the luxury hotel’s general manager.

Whether in town for a wedding or on business, the Newport Beach hotel can accommodate large groups in its 532 guestrooms including 20 suites. Each room comes equipped with iron and ironing board, safe, cable TV, ergonomic desk and luxurious bedding that includes down comforters, custom duvets and cotton-rich linens. The hotel in Newport Beach also features

Sam & Harry’s, a casual steakhouse serving USDA prime steaks, fresh seafood and an extensive wine list. The Lounge at Sam & Harry’s provides guests with seafood, cocktails and an extensive wine list as well as a place to relax and unwind.

In addition to the picturesque rose garden, the luxury hotel in Newport Beach also offers access to the spa, Pure Blu. Whether being pampered before the wedding or just relaxing for fun, visitors can indulge on spa treatments that include body scrubs, couple’s massages, eye treatments, foot baths and makeup services.
