San Diego Marriott Gaslamp Quarter Celebrates Local Films With Local Brew Deal

Downtown San Diego hotel's Brew Diego Package offers valet parking, two craft beers, $20 food credit just in time for San Diego Film Festival

San Diego, CA – The San Diego Marriott Gaslamp Quarter hotel is brewing up some fun for its guests this October with a special deal during the San Diego Film Festival.

A unique Gaslamp Quarter hotel deal, the Brew Diego Package helps vacationers enjoy some of the best local beers and breweries in America's finest city. Guests of the downtown San Diego hotel can take advantage of this package which includes deluxe room accommodations from $199 per night as well as valet parking, two welcome San Diego craft beers per night at Latitude Lounge and a $20 food credit at Latitude.

The Latitude Lounge is a favorite among locals and serves a number of signature cocktails in a cozy, friendly atmosphere. While enjoying their two local craft beers, visitors also can use their $20 food credit toward menu items such as an artisan flatbread sandwich, Caribbean chicken salad or Baja fish tacos. In addition to offering locally brewed craft beers, the expert bartenders of the restaurant in the Gaslamp Quarter hotel are known for their creativity in concocting different cocktails for imbibing on a perfect San Diego evening – before or after attending the San Diego Film Festival.

The five-day movie fest is scheduled Oct. 2-6, 2013 and promises to be bigger and more spectacular than ever before. The event will feature two screening locations in San Diego and La Jolla, more than 100 film screenings, question-and-answer sessions, panels and plenty of parties. The hotel in the Gaslamp District is about 30 minutes from the La Jolla location and is centrally located in downtown San Diego.

One of the premier hotels in the Gaslamp Quarter, the San Diego Marriott offers 306 luxurious rooms for filmgoers to retire to after attending all of the festivities. Room feature comfortable king and double beds topped with down comforters, custom duvets, cotton-rich linens and plenty of pillows so festival participants can get a sound night's sleep to better enjoy the next day's happenings. Coffeemakers with Starbucks coffee, 32-inch LCD TVs, high-speed Internet access and Gilchrist & Soames bath amenities are among other amenities guests will appreciate.

In addition to the roof-top fitness center, lodgers have a wide variety of outdoor venues to have a lot of fun and get a little exercise when they are not attending a screening. Options include

Coronado and Mission beaches where they can bike, fly-fish, hike, go horseback riding, scuba dive, surf and play volleyball.

In addition to the Latitude Lounge, two other onsite dining options include Soleil @k and award-winning Altitude Sky Lounge. Open for breakfast, lunch and dinner, Soleil @k stands out as an innovative restaurant in San Diego, combining contemporary ideas with classic flavors to create unique menus of signature California cuisine in the heart of the city's most engaging area. Some menu favorites include fish-n-chips, cream of lobster soup, Greek salad, the rock shrimp and avocado flatbread and prime hanger steak. Altitude Sky Lounge is another favorite among locals. The bar on the 22nd story of the Gaslamp hotel offers stunning views of the ocean and skyline. Serving appetizers such as ahi sliders, pork pot stickers, Mediterranean calamari and barbeque rotisserie chicken artisan flatbreads, the lounge was named to Conde Nast Traveler's 10th annual Hot List.

Film festival attendees can take advantage of the Brew Diego Package by using promotional code D60 when booking online or calling 1-800-228-9290. The deal is valid through March 13, 2014.
