SPLASHY HOME TOURS AND A-LIST ROSTER OF EVENTS FOR 2013

September 10, 2013 (New York, NY) — Dwell Media and New York magazine are back this fall with City Modern, their 2nd annual collaboration celebrating the best in New York design and architecture. In association with AIA NY's Archtober Festival, and the many other organizations celebrating design this October, City Modern again looks to elevate the level of discussion and awareness about how design effects all areas of our urban lifestyles. The full list of events can be found in the October issue of Dwell (on newsstands now) and New York's fall preview issue, and also at www.citymodernnyc.com.

The week kicks off on September 27 with a Meet the Architects celebration, followed by a weekend of mag-worthy City Modern home tours in Manhattan and Brooklyn. From real life chutes and ladders at the Skyhouse – the four-story penthouse in the Financial District, complete with an 80-foot-long mirror-polished stainless steel slide – to the decked out, James-Bond-meets-Barbarella Brooklyn pad of Flavor Paper kingpin Jon Sherman – this tour is sure to stir the senses as well as great design ideas for any home. An A-list of notable firms bring ticket-buyers 10 breath-taking homes, including David Hotson Architect, Architecture in Formation, Leone Design Studio, Asfour Guzy Architects, Resolution: 4 Architecture, James Cleary Architecture, Skylab Architects, Christian Hubert Studio, Bergen Street Studio and Ben Hansen Architect. Proceeds from the ticket sales benefit Architecture for Humanity. The Meet the Architects opening event on September 27 at Design Within Reach in Soho offers the chance to meet them all and to get a sneak peek of the homes.
