Courtyard Newport Middletown Offers Travelers New Package Inclusive Of Cultural Excursion

Middletown hotel deal provides guests with added incentive to see Rhode Island sites

Middletown, RI – With Courtyard Newport Middletown's new deal, guests can visit one of three local attractions in addition to receiving deluxe accommodations.

The Discover Local Culture Package includes a comfortable room from $135 to $234 per night as well as complimentary breakfast for two and two tickets to explore either the Newport Mansions, Newport Winery or International Tennis Hall of Fame & Museum.

“These attractions are always so popular with our guests,” said General Manager Patti O’Brien. “The package will be perfect for those who are staying with us and are already planning to see any of these three hot ticket items, or for those looking for ideas of what to enjoy around the area.”

The historic Newport Mansions includes seven national historic landmarks with architectural examples from the Colonial Era through the Gilded Age, including Breakers Mansion, once a summer home to the Vanderbilt family. The Newport Winery offers tours of its lush, 60-acre grounds expertly paired with tastings of its award-winning wines. The International Tennis Hall of Fame & Museum is a true sportsman’s paradise with interactive exhibits, videos and original memorabilia from the greatest tennis players of all time. All venues are less than 15 minutes by car from the hotel in Middletown.

After an enjoyable day spent at any of these featured Newport attractions, guests return to one of 138 rooms or 10 suites, all newly renovated and equipped with impressive features. Guests sleep soundly on thick mattresses topped with luxuriously linens and abundant soft, fluffy pillows. Separate sitting areas include a pullout sofa for when extra sleeping space is needed. Updated bathrooms include granite countertops, curved shower rods and Paul Mitchell bath products. Guests have no trouble staying connected with the complimentary Wi-Fi available and spacious desks equipped with convenient power outlets and ergonomic chairs. TVs within the room offer premium channels such as CNN, ESPN and HBO. All rooms include a coffeemaker, iron with ironing board and hair dryer.

In the morning, guests who take advantage of the Middletown hotel deal will enjoy complimentary breakfast for two in The Bistro – Eat. Drink. Connect., where Starbucks coffee is on the menu along with popular American-style fare. The restaurant is open for breakfast, dinner and cocktails and is located off of the hotel's newly renovated lobby. Within the lobby, guests will find an abundance of amenities including complimentary Wi-Fi, a full-service business center with complimentary printing, a theater area, personal media pods and the Courtyard's signature GoBoard where guests can check the local weather, find a nearby restaurant or catch up on area news.

Additional onsite amenities include an indoor/outdoor pool with relaxing whirlpool adjacent to a newly renovated terrace. There is a fitness center with free weights and cardio machines for those who want to stick to an exercise regimen while traveling.

Guests interested in the Discover Local Culture package should use promotional code CUE online or call 1-800-228-9290. The deal is valid through Jan. 31, 2014.
