

The FB Seduction System, a brand new dating program that is designed specifically for men to teach them how to pick up any girl they want through Facebook has caught the attention of GentlemensUniversity.com's Stan Stevenson, prompting an investigative review.

"Dean Cortez has long been known for his fantastic dating concepts, but Cortez and his prodigy students felt it was time to apply this knowledge to Facebook, which is, after all, the place to meet people nowadays. The FaceBook Seduction System is a program developed by him and a number of his students," reports Stevenson. "Basically, The FB Seduction System teaches you that the reason why you are not successful now is due to your own past actions. You will quickly understand where you have been going wrong, and how you can solve the problems you have basically made for yourself."

<http://gentlemensuniversity.com/fb-seduction-system-review> The FB Seduction System is available in PDF format, which is actually the quickest way to get started as users will need to have their Facebook account open at the same time as well to apply what they are learning while copying and pasting some standard texts provided in the manual. The package essentially teaches men how to get any girl they want on Facebook through six specific lessons, but it also includes a range of bonuses. These include a full PDF manual that men can read at their own leisure and which teaches them how to filter women, so they only actually talk to those who would be more than willing to really meet them as well, even if they don't know that themselves.

"One of the great things about The FB Seduction System is that, through the medium of Facebook, you don't even talk to girls live. All you have to do is copy and paste texts that you are provided with on their Facebook pages and gain immediate success," says Stevenson. "You learn how to 'friend' any woman you want on Facebook, even if they don't know you in person. Written in a conversational style, all the information that is available in this PDF format package is easy to understand."

"The Facebook Seduction System is one of the first programs that actually focus specifically on Facebook. It is the most comprehensive system I was able to get my hands on. Dean Cortez is an absolute guru when it comes to dating, and he has teamed up with Brandon Buckley to create this complete system. Dean makes it really easy to understand how networking with any woman of your choice is possible, building up to actually meeting them in person. It teaches you how to get women to befriend you in an easy to understand, step by step method, and it works. Our <http://www.youtube.com/watch?v=iwDEc4zGh-U> FB Seduction System review found that the messages in the program are easy to copy and paste and the results are amazing. It is a really good system overall!"
