

The Pandora's Box System, a PUA guide that recognizes that women aren't all the same, therefore, the same strategy can't always be applied to every woman men encounter has caught the attention of GentlemensUniversity.com's Stan Stevenson, prompting an investigative review.

"Vin Di Carlo is one of the most respected coaches for men on how to gain self-confidence and attract women. The Pandora's Box System is designed to equip you with the tools to effectively seduce any woman you encounter, with a targeted approach according to their type," reports Stevenson. "If you've always had trouble dating women and if you've especially had trouble getting any woman to go out on a date with you, much less get her to come back home with you, the Pandora's Box System is something you should consider."

Our Pandora's Box System review shows it is comprised of the Core System, a Profiler Quiz, and the Ultimate Strategy Guide. The Core System gives men a better understanding of women and the different types that they might encounter through 10 videos and 11 PDF eBooks. The Profiler Quiz will test them on how to identify the kind of woman they are encountering through situational questions, which they will obviously need once they start looking for potential women to meet. Finally, the Ultimate Strategy Guide teaches them the various strategies they can use depending on the type of woman they have encountered.

"The Pandora's Box System has developed a formula that will allow you to determine what type of woman you are dealing with, so you can apply the appropriate strategy. Men love systems, and the Pandora's Box System outlines a systematic approach that you just have to follow to become more successful with women," says Stevenson. "It uses a concept that assumes that a woman has three conflicts within herself at all times and how she deals with them will determine what type she is; that's the gist of it, but it may very well be the reason you might not have been that successful with women in the past."

"The good thing is Pandora's Box System will build your confidence and give you a guide that you can follow along the way. Few men would have it as lucky when they start out. It is a new approach to the attraction guide that recognizes that not every strategy will work on all types of women. This PUA guide is designed to give you a better understanding of each type of woman, so you can quickly identify which one you have encountered and adjust your strategy accordingly, which greatly maximizes your success if you are able to execute it properly."
