

Nationally Acclaimed Solo Play BLANK

with special guest
Patti Hawn, author of

Good Girls Don't

DANCE MISSION THEATER

3316 24th Street, San Francisco 94110

Sunday, October 27th at 7:00p

$25 TIX Online: blank-sf.brownpapertickets.com / $30 at Door

Inquiries: 323-253-4466

Award-Winning, Critically Acclaimed BLANK explores adoption & identity. Playing 12 characters, adoptee Brian Stanton embarks on a quest for identity ultimately discovering the horrific truth of his birth, an instinctive love for his birth mother, and a grateful dedication to his adoptive family.

Succeeding BLANK, Patti Hawn, sister of legendary film actress Goldie Hawn, will stage readings with Stanton from her brave literary debut Good Girls Don't bringing the birthmother's perspective of her teenage pregnancy, the loss of her son to adoption, and the search to reunite 40 years later.

Q&A with audience to follow

"...a profound piece of drama..."

—LA Splash Magazine Worldwide

"...compelling...a moving exploration of identity."

—Backstage New York

A portion of the proceeds from tickets sold will benefit Mixed Roots Foundation, a 501(c)(3) nonprofit organization based in San Francisco serving as the first and only adoptee led foundation for all adoptees and their families that is representative of the international, domestic, and foster care adoption experience. Mixed Roots leverages philanthropy and grass roots fundraising to provide more post-adoption resources for adoptees and their families through promoting and supporting organizations that serve as a resource to the diverse adoptee community, creating more awareness about the adoption experience.

www.mixedrootsfoundation.org