

The NCAA Enforcement Process

A Critical Discussion

The Sports Law Committee of the NYU School of Law Intellectual Property and Entertainment Law Society invites you to a seminar and discussion moderated by Professor Robert Boland and Lester Munson on the NCAA enforcement procedures and legislation with a focus on the Tennessee infractions case.

Wednesday, October 9, 2013

6:15 – 7:30 p.m. NCAA Infractions Process

Panelists: Joyce Thompson
NCAA Enforcement Representative

Michael Buckner
Counsel to NCAA Institutions and Personnel
Buckner Law Firm

Joan Waters
Associate General Counsel
The City University of New York

Moderator: Robert A. Boland
Professor of Sports Management & Sports Business
New York University

7:45 - 9:00 p.m. The Tennessee Infractions Case: the Coach, the Lawyer and the Media

Panelists: Bruce Pearl
Former Head Men's Basketball Coach
University of Tennessee and ESPN Analyst

Steven J. Thompson
Counsel to Coach Pearl, NCAA Institutions and Personnel
Ungaretti & Harris LLP

Dana O'Neil
ESPN.com College Basketball Reporter

Moderator: Lester Munson
ESPN.com Senior Writer and Legal Analyst

Location

New York University School of Law
40 Washington Square South
Vanderbilt Hall, Room 210
New York, NY 10012

Registration*

Click here to register.
For questions contact Steve Couper at spc318@nyu.edu or Adam Dale at aid233@nyu.edu

*CLE accreditation is available for attorneys. Cost for CLE is free. Limited to 140 registrants. All attendees must register in advance, as space is limited.