

The Desire System, a home-based program that focuses on a psychological breakthrough called “emotional contagion” that allows men to transfer their emotions to the woman they are interested in, making them more empathetic has caught the attention of GentlemensUniversity.com’s Stan Stevenson, prompting an investigative review.

“Created by Dr. David Tian who is widely considered to be Asia’s top dating coach and is the founder of Aura, the world’s largest dating university, The Desire System is a home-based program that includes many of the lessons that are taught at Aura,” reports Stevenson. “A very bare bones sequence of videos which feature Dr. Tian lecturing in what appears to be a classroom set-up, the simple program doesn't infringe on his right as the creator to protect his material and sell it for gain.”

<http://gentlemensuniversity.com/desire-system-review> The Desire System gives one access to four HD video seminars with Dr. Tian himself as a host. The core system gives offers all the essentials for men to use the next time they go out, so they can attract girls and sleep with them in the same night. There are also bonuses in the form of advanced classes such as Lust, The Friends into Lovers, and The Endless Conversation course that allow them to tailor their approach to different kinds of girls.

“One of the great things about The Desire System is the program is not about heavy social tactics. It combines the power of mirror neurons with basic social approaches that are not only easy to remember but also important if you want to actually make use of it,” says Stevenson. “The Desire System is more intellectual than other programs and is something that even beginners can pick up on. The program isn't overly complicated and is more of a simple habit that fits into everything else you would normally do. It also teaches you the value of being emotionally honest, which is why you feel what you feel, and to be proactive in changing the anchor which causes you to feel the way you do.”

“The concept of honesty is a particular aspect of The Desire System that I found highly effective and perhaps, even groundbreaking. The program does a good job of emphasizing the need to stop wasting energy “trying” to “be” confident. Instead, you learn that honest vulnerability is confidence and power. Unlike other PUA dating systems in the market that rely as much as possible on social cues and responses, The Desire System is unique in that it emphasizes on being emotionally honest and vulnerable and doesn't require a certain amount of confidence to be able to apply whatever you learn effectively. This makes it easier to recommend the program to beginners as well as men with more experience in the dating game. It’s also a pretty straightforward step-by-step system that’s easy to follow. My verdict is that there are some truly game changing ideas in this program!”
