Coastal Sotheby's International Realty to Open New Office in Jupiter on US Highway 1

PALM BEACH GARDENS, FL (PRWEB) November 6, 2013 - Coastal Sotheby's International Realty, a global luxury real estate firm, announced today that it will be expanding into Jupiter and has leased a 1,200-square-foot office in Driftwood Plaza at 2159 S. U.S. Highway One.

Kelly Martin, Managing Broker at the Palm Beach Gardens location, will oversee the Jupiter operations. Design and construction will begin in the coming weeks. Set to open in early 2014, the new location will service the firm's growing clientele base in the Jupiter, Jupiter Island, Jupiter Inlet Colony, Juno Beach, Tequesta, Hobe Sound and Stuart communities.

Selecting the Jupiter location took nearly six months as ideas and various location and space requirements evolved. "Over one-third of our sales volume is located in the Jupiter and Tequesta markets and so it just made sense to open a location to serve our clients in this area." Presently, the company has been servicing its clients in North Palm Beach, Palm Beach Gardens, Juno Beach, Jupiter, Jupiter Island, Hobe Sound, Tequesta, Singer Island, Stuart, Wellington and West Palm Beach from its Palm Beach Gardens location near The Gardens Mall.

In designing the new layout, Coastal Sotheby's International Realty is ensuring that the space is inviting and promotes collaborative workspaces for its clients and associates. The charming, boutique-style atmosphere and lush tropical landscaping at Driftwood Plaza are the perfect complement to Coastal Sotheby's International Realty.

Martin notes that "Coastal Sotheby's International Realty is thankful for the support of the brand, our current associates and the community." This necessary expansion will allow the firm to continue servicing the discerning buyers and sellers that demand professional attention to detail that its associates provide.
