Local Business, MOB Advocacy, Needs Support to be Eligible for $250,000 Grant from Mission Main StreetSM Grants

Help MOB Advocacy Grow by Voting Online Before November 15

FAIRFAX, VIRGINIA – MOB Advocacy, a local state and local government relations firm, has applied for a $250,000 grant from Chase as part of a newly launched program, Mission Main StreetSM Grants. MOB Advocacy must submit a questionnaire outlining a business plan that will result in growth of the business and receive at least 250 votes to be eligible for a grant. Full eligibility requirements are available in the Program Rules. Customers, fans and community members can show support for MOB Advocacy by voting at www.MissionMainStreetGrants.com/business/detail/33970 using Facebook Connect. The voting deadline is November 15, 2013 and grant recipients will be selected by expert panelists.

“MOB Advocacy is a small business striving to grow and expand by doing helping other small businesses and startups grow and expand, many right here in Fairfax. Receiving this grant would be an unbelievable opportunity to not only grow our business, but to help more businesses start and grow in Fairfax, Virginia,” said Michael O’Brien, founder and principal of MOB Advocacy.

Through Mission Main Street Grants, Chase will award $3 million to small business across America. All businesses that apply for a grant and meet the eligibility requirements will receive a special advertising offer from Premier Sponsor, Google. In addition, the 12 grant recipients will be eligible to receive a trip to Google for an exclusive
