Builder Magazine Names Milgard Windows & Doors 2013 Readers Choice

Tacoma, WA (November 14, 2013) – BUILDER magazine named Milgard windows and doors a 2013 Readers Choice “favorite product” on Monday, November 11. The honor was announced in the November issue of Builder magazine.

The choice of winners is based on an annual product survey conducted online and through phone calls to builders. The industry professionals were asked to describe a product that they “can’t live without” as well as why that product was so beneficial.

In the end, 16 products, including Milgard® products, received special recognition based on “outstanding reviews from multiple respondents.”

The manufacturer of Essence™ Series wood windows and Tuscany® Series vinyl windows was chosen as a favorite based on a number of dimensions.

“[Milgard] has great quality,” said Bob Kayser, Vice President of Construction at Gentry Homes in Hawaii to Builder magazine. Milgard has been previously recognized by BUILDER magazine as the brand leader in overall vinyl quality eight times. The company has thirteen locations in the Western U.S. and Canada to serve local customers, assemble and deliver custom-designed products, and respond to any warranty situations.

In July 2013, Milgard introduced its innovative Moving Glass Wall Systems in 12 standard sizes in three- and four-panel configurations for new construction and retrofit projects.

Ted Argo at Argo/Architect said to BUILDER magazine that he is looking forward to working with Milgard® Moving Glass Wall Systems and that the line could lower the cost of installing wide-opening patio doors.
