

Just Culture CERTIFICATION COURSE

Savannah, GA • February 4-6, 2014 • 8 a.m. to 5 p.m.

Intended Participants: Individuals interested in the Just Culture Model to improve leadership effectiveness.

If you are an organization interested in integration of Just Culture principles, we recommend a team from each section of your organization capable of guiding your organization in the training and implementation of the Five Skills Model; in particular, leaders from operations, safety/risk/quality, and HR. This course is open to professionals from all industries.

The Venue

The Armstrong Center

Armstrong Atlantic State University
13040 Abercorn St.
Savannah, GA 31419-1997

Cost: $3,200 per person

Early Bird Cost: $2,800 (if registered prior to January 3rd, 2014)

Why should you become certified?

This course is designed to help organizations achieve better outcomes, pursue sustainable and positive culture change through learning and justice, and reduce adverse events. This is accomplished by developing in-house expertise in the 5 Skills and the Just Culture Algorithm™.

"This isn't the flavor of the month. It has the potential to save lives and change organizations when put into practice."

Certified Just Culture Champions are valuable internal resources and subject matter specialists in justice and accountability, making them a catalyst for Just Culture change throughout the organization.

How do you become a Certified Champion?

In order to receive full Certification, you will be asked to complete online training, pass a proficiency exam, and participate in a verbal debrief following your exam submission. Upon certification, you will also gain membership in a prestigious community of Champions who have demonstrated in-depth proficiency and competency in the Just Culture Algorithm.
