Handy International is pleased to announce that Todd Conway, Executive Vice President for Handy, is expanding his role in the company to include: Operations, Procurement and Quality Control. “Todd will continue his role as CFO and we are very excited that he is expanding to give support and direction to other departments within the company,” said Terry Conway, Chairman and CEO of Handy International.

While attending the University of Notre Dame, Todd returned home on summer breaks and worked within the Handy plant and corporate office. “He was exposed first hand to Handy’s core values and goals by his years of experience of working in various roles within the company,” commented Carol Haltaman, Senior Vice President of Handy International. After graduating from college and working in the financial field, he rejoined Handy as Senior Vice President and Director in 2007. “Todd has an eye for numbers,” commented Terry

Conway. “With his previous financial experience in large multi-national companies, I was very happy to have him rejoin the family company in 2007.”

Todd passed the CPA exam while working in Illinois and has a MBA from Duke University.
