The widespread media attention surrounding the Inbox Blueprint launch has caught the attention of HonestyFirstReviews.com's Tiffany Hendricks, prompting an investigative review."

"The commotion surrounding the release of Anik Singal's Inbox Blueprint is rather astounding," says Hendricks. "The program has just hit the market and it's already shaping up to be one of the most popular IM training courses in recent history. Folks who have yet to get their feet wet with email marketing are buying the course in droves because it's so user friendly that they don't feel intimidated by it, and more advanced users are also excited to learn from Anik based on his reputation as a thought leader in the email marketing space. So, obviously we felt it was important to review to the program and report on it for our readers."

"Our Inbox Blueprint review explains that we were quite impressed with Anik's ability to break down a rather complex subject like email marketing, and explain it in terms that somebody who is new to this marketing channel can pick up very quickly" says Hendricks.
