Tannenbaum Helpern Named 2014 Capital Formation Law Firm of the Year - USA

New York, NY, March 5, 2014—Acquisition International Magazine's 2014 International Hedge Fund Awards names Tannenbaum Helpern's Financial Services, Private Funds & Capital Markets practice "Capital Formation Law Firm of the Year – USA".

Acquisition International's global awards recognize the outstanding achievements of individuals and companies within the hedge fund industry and are given solely on merit. Winners are determined by votes received from over 53,000 Acquisition International Magazine subscribers along with 40,000 hedge fund professionals, and independent in-house research.

"We are delighted to receive this award. For over three decades, Tannenbaum Helpern has been providing legal counsel to hedge funds, private equity funds, investment managers and investors, from fund structuring, private placements, offering memoranda, marketing materials, structured products to regulatory registration and compliance and securities law and litigation," said Michael G. Tannenbaum, chair of the firm's Financial Services, Private Funds & Capital Markets practice.

"We are intimately familiar with the issues facing the industry and how these issues could impact hedge funds and their investors," added Ricardo Davidovich, a partner in Tannenbaum Helpern's Financial Services, Private Funds & Capital Markets practice. "This recognition speaks to the firm's quality and strength in serving the hedge fund global community," Davidovich added.
