FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Belvoir Federal Welcomes New CIO and Director of HR

Woodbridge, VA, March 31, 2014 — Belvoir Federal Credit Union would like to introduce George Ksenics, the credit union’s new Chief Information Officer, and Karyn Burke, the new Director of Human Resources (HR).

George, a graduate of Brigham Young University, brings 25 years of Information Technology (IT) and 13 years of financial services experience to his new role as CIO. Throughout George’s career, he has gained a vast knowledge of Management Information Systems (MIS) including managing network and DATA operations, standardizing server rooms, developing IT strategic direction/plans, increasing efficiencies, ensuring digital securities, and providing leadership to employees.

“As an IT professional who enjoys the challenge of effectively managing and delivering projects in a timely matter and within budget, I am guided by the desire to make significant contributions to the workplace while providing excellent member service,” stated George.

Karyn, a graduate of University of Arizona and the Western CUNA Management School, brings nearly 20 years of management and 10 years of credit union experience to her new role as Director of HR. In her previous responsibilities at credit unions, Karyn gained knowledge in the areas of coaching employees, providing a good working environment, and understanding the fundamentals of HR.

“The new role, Director of HR, will allow me the opportunity to bring my knowledge and experience to our internal members (the employees) of Belvoir Federal. As I strategize in my new role, I look forward to maintaining our status as being one of the Best Places to Work in Virginia,” stated Karyn.

By elevating experienced employees, Belvoir Federal will retain valued employees who understand the fundamentals of the Credit Union Movement as well as Belvoir Federal’s mission and values of serving members with exceptional service.
