Bob Fryling
Publisher, InterVarsity Press

Robert A. (Bob) Fryling is publisher of InterVarsity Press (Westmont, Illinois) and vice president of InterVarsity Christian Fellowship (Madison, Wisconsin). Born and raised in Philadelphia, Bob graduated from Drexel University with a metallurgical engineering degree and later received a master's degree in intercultural studies from Wheaton Graduate School. He has worked for Ford Motor Company and was director of human resources and education as well as national director of campus ministries for 14 years with InterVarsity. He has served on the boards of the Evangelical Christian Publishers Association, Scripture Union, and the Center for Early African Christianity.

Bob writes, speaks and teaches in the areas of spiritual formation, leadership, and Christian faith and culture. He lives in Illinois with his wife, Alice, an author and spiritual director. Bob and Alice have two daughters and four grandchildren. They have coauthored three books together, including A Handbook for Engaged Couples, A Handbook for Married Couples and A Handbook for Parents. He contributed to the book The Transformation of a Man's Heart and to the accompanying study guide, Work, which puts men's occupations into the context of their relationship with God.
