

About Robert Richter

Independent Documentary Producer

Few documentary producers have received as many honors: the 2008 National Emmy for "exceptional merit in nonfiction filmmaking"; 2010 Motion Picture Academy "short list" for best doc shorts—one of ten Richter-related films honored by the Academy; three duPont Columbia Broadcast Journalism awards (TV's Pulitzer Prize); the Distinguished Science Reporting Award from AAAS (American Academy for Advancement of Science); Peabody Awards; many US and international film festival awards; critical acclaim in the New York Times and other major papers.

Robert Richter directs, produces, writes, Executive Produces and distributes documentaries on the human dimensions of the vital issues of our time. His documentaries have been telecast in prime time on HBO, PBS, CBS, NBC, ABC, TBS, Discovery, BBC and many other major overseas television outlets.

For more information on his body of work, see <http://richtervideos.com>

For those interested in participating in his latest project, you can find “The Real Trial of the 20th Century” at www.film-makerscollab.org/films/the-real-trial-of-the-century/