Enter for a Chance to Win a "Great Escape" from Island Air When You Vote For Your Favorite Hawaiian Island on Facebook

HONOLULU, HAWAI'I — Island Air is offering a chance to win a Great Escape to the island of Kaua'i when you connect with them on Facebook. The Great Escape includes inter-island roundtrip airfare for two, from any location Island Air serves, to Kaua'i, and a relaxing four-day, three-night stay at Poipu Beach's newest "playground," the Sheraton Kauai Resort. In addition, all participants will be entered into a daily drawing for a $20.00 Starbucks E-Gift Card.

To enter, vote for your favorite Hawaiian Island in the Great Escape contest on the Island Air Facebook page (https://www.facebook.com/islandairhawaii). Those who have previously "liked" Island Air's Facebook page are eligible, but must complete an entry form to qualify. The contest runs now through June 27, 2014.

Island Air offers non-stop direct flights between Honolulu International Airport and the neighbor island airports of Kahului, Maui; Līhu'e, Kaua'i; and Lāna'i City, Lāna'i. For more information about Island Air, please visit www.IslandAir.com.

About Island Air

Island Air, flying solely between the islands of Hawai'i, shares the Aloha spirit throughout the islands with more than 200 weekly flights between O'ahu, Maui, Kaua'i, and Lāna'i. With its 64-seat ATR-72 turboprop aircraft, Island Air is able to offer captivating up close views of Hawai'i's landscapes. Founded in 1980 as Princeville Airways, the company was re-named Island Air in 1992, and in February 2013, Island Air was purchased by Oracle founder Larry Ellison's company, Ohana Airline Holdings, LLC. Visit www.IslandAir.com for more information.
