

Trapp Makes its Debut on the Inc. 500 List of Fastest Growing Private Companies in America

IT Consulting and Cloud Hosting Company Ranks No. 294 on the Inc. 500 with Three-Year Sales Growth of 1,554.2%.

Scottsdale, AZ. – August 21, 2014 – Scottsdale based Trapp Corp., a provider of IT, Internet, and cloud hosting solutions, is proud to announce it has debuted at number 294 on the 33rd annual Inc. 500 list of America's fastest growing private companies. Trapp now shares a pedigree with Intuit, Zappos, Under Armour, Microsoft, Oracle, and other notable Inc. 500 alumni. The list represents the most comprehensive look at the most important segment of the economy -- America's independent entrepreneurs.

"This list represents much more than a plaque on our wall," said David Trapp, CEO at Trapp Corp. "Making our Inc. 500 debut is the culmination of seven years' worth of product development, rapid expansion to cater to our customers' needs, and a dedication to outstanding service and support. I couldn't be more proud to have walked alongside the Trapp team each step of the way."

Representatives from Trapp Corp. will attend the annual Inc. 5000 Conference and Awards Ceremony in Phoenix from October 15-17, 2014. Speakers include some of the greatest entrepreneurs of this and past generations, such as Michael Dell, Martha Stewart, host of the CNBC show "The Profit" Marcus Lemonis, Container Store Founder and CEO Kip Tindell, and Chobani Founder and CEO Hamdi Ulukaya.

"What surprises me, even though I know it's coming, is the sheer variety of the paths our entrepreneurs take to success, thematically reflecting how our economy has evolved," says Inc. President and Editor-In-Chief Eric Schurenberg. "But what doesn't change is the fearsome creativity unleashed by American entrepreneurship."
