Napa Valley Film Festival Returns Bringing Exceptional Celebration of Film, Food and Wine
Lodging specials available for fourth annual event

NAPA, Calif. (October 22, 2014) – The Napa Valley Film Festival (NVFF) will return for its fourth year and kick-off all festival events in Downtown Napa at City Winery. The festival will take place November 12 through 16, 2014. Events in downtown will also take place at The Lounge at Napa River Inn, Uptown Theatre Napa and more. Festival attendees are encouraged to book overnight accommodations in the City of Napa, as Napa will be the main hub for all NVFF events.

Many of Downtown Napa's fantastic lodging properties are offering special packages for visitors during the film festival. To book your festival stay, visit DoNapaFilmFest.com.

Embassy Suites Napa Valley is offering a special rate for guests visiting during the Napa Valley Film Festival, which includes a stay in the newly redesigned, stylish guests suites featuring fashionable furnishings, contemporary amenities and more room to relax.

The Napa River Inn is offering the Film Noir package. Guests will experience a two-night stay, $100 spa credit, a bottle of wine, in-room breakfast, free parking and Wi-Fi.

The Meritage Resort and Spa is offering the Film Festival package, which gives guests 10% off the best available rate.

Napa River Terrace Inn is offering guests the Bed & Breakfast package. Guests will enjoy overnight accommodations for two, which includes a country style breakfast for two.

White House Inn & Spa is offering a November Festival Special. When guests stay three or more nights, they will receive a 10% discount on room rates, 20% off a couple's massage, $50 discount on a balloon ride and champagne and chocolate covered cherries upon arrival.

NVFF will feature over 125 films, 300 filmmakers, 50 chefs and 150 wineries. There will also be celebrity tributes where achievements of established actors, filmmakers, and rising stars will be recognized.
