New Regional Manager MEA joins WATG team in Dubai

Global Design Firm WATG strengthen presence in the Gulf Region

Dubai, November 2014 - WATG, a global design firm, which has worked on some of the most iconic landmarks in the Gulf region, such as the Emirates Palace, the Atlantis and the One & Only Royal Mirage welcomes Nasser Turk as Regional Manager MEA. An established design consultant for mixed-used and resort master planning, urban design and new town and residential community planning, Nasser will support regional efforts to deliver innovative design solutions to the firm's growing clients in the region.

"The dynamic growth in the Gulf continues to impress and we want to continue to provide our clients in the region with WATG's highest standards of design consultancy. We are very happy to have Nasser onboard to strengthen our local team with his planning and urban design expertise," said Muriel Muirden, executive vice president and managing director strategy. "His background in planning and his experience with local regulations excellently complement our team in Dubai."

Prior to WATG, Nasser worked as Senior Design Consultant for the Abu Dhabi Municipality. Nasser has 16 years of combined industry experience in the United Arab Emirates and the United States of America where he earned his bachelor's degree in planning from Arizona State University. Nasser is a member of the American Planning Association, and active with the Urban Land Institute.
