IT Consulting and Cloud Hosting Corporation Sponsors Annual Golf Tournament Benefiting Arizona Hemophilia Association

Scottsdale, AZ. – November 10, 2014 – Scottsdale-based Trapp Corp., a provider of IT, Internet, and cloud hosting solutions, announced today their corporate sponsorship of the 15th Annual Arizona Desert Classic Charity Golf Tournament to benefit the Arizona Hemophilia Association (AHA), a non-profit organization raising funds and awareness for Hemophilia and other bleeding disorders.

The Annual Arizona Desert Classic Golf Tournament, held on November 12, 2014 at the Arizona Grand Golf Course, is an interactive day filled with thematic events featuring breakfast, 18 holes of golf, lunch, a silent auction, raffle prizes, tee gifts and more.

“As part of our ongoing efforts to give back to the Arizona community, we’re excited to sponsor and participate in the Arizona Hemophilia Association’s Desert Classic Charity Golf Tournament in Phoenix,” says Reed Clarke, Vice President of Business Development for Trapp Technology. “Through this endeavor, we hope to empower individuals and families affected, ensure quality education, and encourage a strong network of advocacy and awareness for hemophilia and other bleeding disorders.”

In October, Trapp Technology employees also participated in the Arizona Hemophilia Walk at the Phoenix Zoo in honor and in memory of those whose lives have been affected by bleeding disorders. Reed continues, “With over 1,000 diagnosed cases in Arizona, we felt compelled to join AHA in their cause to enhance life for people with inherited bleeding disorders while advocating a cure”.

A portion of all golf fees and charitable donations will fund AHA’s services and programs designed to fit the unique needs of those affected by bleeding disorders in Arizona. Registration fees of $125 per player or $500 for a team of four include golf-play, dining, drink tickets, and gifts. For tickets and sponsorship opportunities, contact Nicole Wheeler at nicole@arizonahemophilia.org.
