Commonwealth Legal Teams with Huron Legal to bring Cost-Effective Review Solutions to Canada

TORONTO, ON, CANADA – December 15, 2014 – COMMONWEALTH LEGAL, a division of RICOH Canada, and leading provider of secure, web-based legal document management solutions, and HURON LEGAL, a division of HURON CONSULTING GROUP, a leading provider of business consulting services, announced today the launch of their cross-border alliance to offer an innovative and competitive review solution for the Canadian marketplace.

“With the explosion of electronic data, clients are seeking more efficient approaches to review.” says Jennifer Johnson, VP of Commonwealth Legal. “In this changing environment, our aim is to promote the combined use of leading-edge review technology with proven outsourced document review at a predictable per document rate.”

Commonwealth Legal has invested heavily in the advancement of its analytics and Technology Assisted Review (TAR) consulting capabilities, and has teamed with Huron Legal on several significant review projects. By bringing together Commonwealth Legal’s comprehensive ediscovery solutions that leverage technology-driven review with Huron Legal’s team of discovery expert resources, which includes over 1600 reviewers worldwide, the two teams align seamlessly to provide a superior quality review solution that is second to none.

“The alliance now provides Canadian customers with the benefit of keeping their data within the protection of Canadian borders, but allows them to gain access to competitive review rates typical of the US market,” says Bob Rowe, Executive Vice President, Huron Legal. “This combined offering provides the most reliable, cost-effective review solution in the Canadian marketplace today.”

Comprehensive Technology-Driven Review Solutions using the technology of your choice, at a predictable price, are available through Commonwealth Legal in alliance with Huron Legal.
