The Income Tax School Offers Active Military and Veterans a Discount on Tax Preparation Training

RICHMOND, VA, January 23, 2015 – The Income Tax School announced today that it will begin offering a 20% discount on elearning tax courses, seminars and certificate programs to all active duty military, reservists, retirees, veterans, and their spouses.

Sheila Clark, Director of The Income Tax School, Inc. (ITS), stated that “tax preparation is one of those vocations that you can do just about anywhere. There is always a shortage of qualified tax preparers each tax season and training can be done online from just about any location with internet access. The only prerequisites are that you are 18 years of age or older, and have a high school diploma or the equivalent.”

“Some of our best tax preparers and office managers have been retired military soldiers and officers,” said Chuck McCabe, President and CEO of Peoples Tax, Inc. and The Income Tax School, Inc. “They are hardworking, dedicated, and want to stay active. Many are looking for a second career and the seasonality of tax preparation appeals to them. It’s also great for The Income Tax School to say thank you to those who have served our country. Tax preparation is an industry that always needs good people and it’s great to be able to help some of our active military, veterans, and their spouses supplement their income, find a new career, or even start a new business.” said McCabe.

“The Income Tax School is designed to help people transition into the tax preparation industry with the right acumen and the highest levels of confidence and credibility within weeks or months,” McCabe added. “You don’t need to know accounting or be a whiz at math, just basic arithmetic skills. In fact, the most important attribute we look for when hiring is people skills.”
