

Craig Rickard Consulting Opens It's Doors In San Francisco, California

Craig Rickard 12 year software and database developer has opened his new office in San Francisco, California. With this new move, Craig Rickard Consulting will be better located for it's growing Silicon Valley clientele.

Like most growing consulting companies, Craig Rickard Consulting is changing to meet the needs of the client. The new location in San Francisco was the right move at the right time. With an ever changing landscape of clientele, San Francisco is showing the biggest growth opportunity for the 12 year old company.

“This is a really exciting time for us,” said Craig Rickard founder and CEO of Craig Rickard Consulting, “to be moving to where nearly 80% of all our clientele is located will give us the ability to meet with them on a daily basis if needed.”

Craig Rickard Consulting opened it's doors in 2003 servicing the San Jose, California area, it has since grown to be one of the most prestigious software and database consulting companies in California area especially Silicon Valley.

“Since the conception of moving out on my own, it has always been a dream of ours to be headquartered in San Francisco area.” Said Mr. Rickard. “To finally have made it really still feels a bit surreal.”

Craig Rickard Consulting is heavily focused on consulting with medium to large companies in the areas of data solutions and applications.
