Telling Your Story is an interactive web event designed to encourage people living with a chronic illness or disability to tell their personal stories. Individuals with disabilities as well as experts in the fields of mental health, advocacy, and peer support will provide you with the tools and knowledge to develop your own narrative. You'll see how telling your story can empower you and connect you with others.

Tell Your Story and Reap the Benefits:

- Improve your physical and mental health
- Make social connections and help others
- Influence change, open doors and access resources

Don't Miss These Other Web Events in the Allsup True Help Series:
