Tackling Domestic Violence & Child Abuse

Mujeres aprieten bien sus faldas, busquemos herramientas contra la violencia doméstica y el maltrato de niños

2015 LULAC National Women's Conference

The League of United Latin American Citizens (LULAC) and the Women's Commission invites you to participate in our 2015 LULAC National Women's Conference from March 26-29, 2015 in Santa Ana, New Mexico.

We will offer professional development workshops on various topics including Education, Health, Government, Domestic Violence, Child Abuse, and other important women issues. We'll also highlight the phenomenal contributions that Latinas have made and continue to make in this country.

The mission of the LULAC National Women's Commission is to raise awareness and build the capacity of Latinas of all ages nationwide to become leaders and agents for change in their communities. We aim to elevate women social conditions through education, leadership development, political empowerment, economic development, health care and women's rights.

This year, our focus will be on providing tools to combat domestic violence and protecting our children against child abuse.

Elsie Valdes Ramos

National Vice-President for Women
