Digiscribe Inducted for Sixth Consecutive Year into Digitech Systems' Circle of Excellence

Elmsford, New York – April 16, 2015 – Digiscribe, provider of document scanning services, document management solutions and workflow automation software throughout the New York metro and New England areas, today announces their sixth consecutive induction into Digitech Systems' Circle of Excellence.

Circle of Excellence members are chosen from the Digitech Systems value-added reseller (VAR) community. The selection process recognizes top resellers who provide superior customer service to users of Digitech Systems' document management software including ImageSilo®, PaperVision® Enterprise and PaperVision® Capture. The Circle of Excellence also recognizes organizations that support Digitech Systems' goals and values, including providing legendary customer service and operating with integrity.

"It is an honor to once again be recognized as a Digitech Systems Circle of Excellence reseller," said Digiscribe President Mitch Taube. "We strive to provide the best service, support and technical expertise to our clients for their cloud-based and in-house document management software, and we're proud to be included as part of this highly exclusive and distinctive group."

"The Digiscribe team continues to provide outstanding customer service, support and knowledge of the Digitech Systems software suite," said Digitech Systems Director of Sales Sean Morris. "Digiscribe has been an essential member of our reseller network and continues to drive our success in the New York tri-state area."

About Digiscribe

Digiscribe transforms the way companies, healthcare facilities, non-profit organizations and government agencies manage and process their documents with document scanning services, document management software and workflow automation services. Companies engage us to solve their business process problems with a portfolio of services and software that is supported with technical expertise, superior customer service and over 25 years of experience. Our New York office is one of the first SOC 2 Type 2 document conversion centers in the New York tri-state area and our Massachusetts office is centrally located to serve New England. All staff are HIPAA compliance trained.
