

Mike Tompkins recently partnered with Convoy of Hope to create an original music video, using sounds originating from Convoy of Hope's Children's Feeding and Women's Empowerment Initiatives.

Daylight
was the result.

“Shooting this music video was one of the most epic moments of my life.”

-Mike Tompkins

On April 21, Daylight will launch on Tompkins' YouTube channel. This video will serve as the season finale of his three-month series of original songs.

Mike Tompkins is an a capella artist that started his musical career on YouTube in 2009 and has gained nearly 1.5 million subscribers. Known for his ability to produce all his own sounds with his voice and mouth, Tompkins has been releasing original music for the last three months as part of a series titled, THE Acapella Producer.
