

Temecula Discount Realtor Now Working With Home Loans Expert Kevin Leonard and His Team

The busy season has begun for real estate agents in Temecula, and Kevin Leonard and his group keep adding new affiliates. A Temecula discount Realtor is working the group providing listings for 1 percent commissions for sellers to the agent, and 1% rebate for buyers.

(PRWEB) April 14, 2015 -- For homeowners looking to save money on selling a home in Temecula, but do not want the risk and hassle of selling them on their own (FSBO) there is another alternative. A Temecula discount Realtor has just joined Kevin Leonard's group of local professionals that are offering multiple real estate services to locals. The team is built from mortgage professionals that use their marketing skills to help co-brand themselves with local Temecula real estate agents. A growing trend lately is the interest from sellers and buyers to use a discount real estate brokerage in Temecula California. These discount real estate agents provide the same level of service as a "traditional" agent, but at a discount rate. The discount realty fees provide homeowners that are selling a home up to 1 third the cost in fees, and the buyers receive 1 percent as a rebate at closing when the agent represents them. A group of local real estate and mortgage professionals continue to pique the interest of Temecula Realtors and homeowners. The team is heavily marketing the area with online marketing using Google and Facebook to advertise the specials they offer. A spokesperson for the group stated "Yes there is a big savings using a discount real estate company in Temecula to sell your home, but it's not just the savings that has locals using our team. Our group uses all the tools and technology to keep our clients up to date on the status of a sale, and are available by phone 7 days a weeks." To find out why more and more agents are switching to the discount model for selling or buying a home call the local office at the number listed.
