

Temecula Flat Fee Broker Aligns With Fast Growing Mortgage And Real Estate Group Headed by Kevin Leonard

Kevin Leonard and his team continue to partner with Temecula real estate agents that offer discount realty fees. The group just wrapped up another flat fee Realtor in Temecula to work alongside with to provide financing for new home purchases.

Temecula, California (PRWEB) April 16, 2015 -- A growing trend in the real estate industry is discount real estate brokerages. Many homeowners use flat fee, or 1% discount listing services to sell their properties. Kevin Leonard and his group work with the top real estate agents in Southern California, and recently have been getting a lot of interest from discount real estate brokers in Temecula. The newest addition to the team is a flat fee broker in Temecula that offers a $3999 flat fee to list a home for sale. The house will receive all the same effort that most real estate agents offer, except at the discounted price. Traditionally a Temecula Realtor would charge around 3% to list a property, which would be around $12,000.00 in commissions based on the average home value in Temecula. So, a saving the client roughly 2 thirds the cost. Additionally, the homeowner will also pay the buyer's agent anywhere from 2 to 3 percent.

Flat fee brokers are nothing new, but because people do most of their home searching online, paying 5 or 6 percent to sell a home, may be too much. Most of the "work" in finding a home is done by the consumer, and not by the broker, and homeowners looking to sell a home know this. Real estate commissions are negotiable, and many sellers feel that a flat fee broker can still make a good commission for the work they do.
