Returning To Work Will Include:

- Information about the safety net of incentives available to help Social Security Disability Insurance (SSDI) recipients increase their income, grow professionally, and re-enter the workforce.
- Facts that dispel myths and fears SSDI beneficiaries may have about returning to work.
- Stories from individuals who have successfully returned to work after receiving SSDI benefits.
- Information, resources and links to help you identify jobs best suited to your skills and interests, as well as employers seeking to hire people with disabilities.
- Question and answer session with SSDI, job placement and vocational rehabilitation experts.
- Group chats.

Featuring

- Ability Beyond
- Allsup Employment Services, Inc. (AESI)
- DirectEmployers
- National Stroke Association

Returning To Work is an interactive web event designed to provide valuable information to individuals who currently receive SSDI benefits and may be considering a return to the workforce. For those who are able and motivated, there are free resources and services available that can help them identify and achieve work-related goals.

Return to Work and Reap the Benefits:

- Earn a monthly income that is more than your SSDI benefits
- Potentially grow your retirement income
- Gain personal fulfillment
- Enjoy social interaction
- Give back to society
