Omega Has Reached the GuideStar Exchange Gold Participation Level

Premiere Source of Nonprofit Information Honors Omega's Commitment to Transparency

RHINEBECK, NY – Omega Institute for Holistic Studies today received the GuideStar Exchange Gold participation level, a leading symbol of transparency and accountability provided by GuideStar USA, Inc., the premier source of nonprofit information. This level demonstrates Omega's deep commitment to nonprofit transparency and accountability.

“We are thrilled to have been recognized by GuideStar as an organization that has achieved a high standard of transparency as we work toward fulfilling our mission,” said Carla Goldstein, chief external affairs officer at Omega.

About the GuideStar Exchange

The GuideStar Exchange is an initiative designed to connect nonprofits with current and potential supporters. With millions of people coming to GuideStar to learn more about nonprofit organizations, the GuideStar Exchange allows nonprofits to share a wealth of up-to-date information with GuideStar's many audiences. Becoming a GuideStar Exchange participant is free of charge. To join, organizations need to update their report pages, completing all required fields for participation. The GuideStar Exchange level logos, acknowledged as symbols of transparency in the nonprofit sector, are displayed on all Exchange participants' nonprofit reports.
