Champions Gateway Group Hosting Charity Challenge Benefiting Shelton Quarles' IMPACT Foundation

Inaugural fundraiser provides support for at-risk families and single-parents in the community.

TAMPA, Fla. – (May 15, 2015) – Champions Gateway Group is hosting a Charity Challenge Indoor Golf Tournament benefiting Shelton Quarles' IMPACT Foundation and Champions Gateway Group on Friday, May 29, from 4 to 8 p.m. at Golfer's Grail Indoor Golf & Tap located at 10019 N. Dale Mabry Hwy., Suite 100. The IMPACT Foundation provides resources and opportunities for at-risk, single-parent families in the Tampa Bay area.

“I am honored that Champions Gateway Group is partnering with my IMPACT Foundation for our First Annual Charity Challenge Indoor Golf Tournament,” said Quarles. “Fundraisers like these are so important because they make such a tremendous difference in the lives of single mothers and their families. The Tampa community has been so supportive of me as well as my foundation and I am really looking forward to seeing some friendly faces joining us for this fun event!”

The event will combine indoor golf, “Beat the Pro” challenges featuring Quarles, fellowship, food, wine & chocolate pairings, a Chinese auction and chance drawings.

“This event not only brings two local organizations together to improve our community, but everyone who attends is helping to provide programs and support for our neighbors in need,” said Dulcee Loehn, president of Champions Gateway Group.
