FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

MICROSOFT DYNAMICS GP 2015 R2 NEW RELEASE AVAILABLE TO TEST DRIVE THROUGH GOERPCLOUD

Existing customers and businesses looking for new ERP software can now test-drive Microsoft Dynamics GP 2015 R2 through goERPcloud.

SAN DIEGO, Calif. (June, 04 2015) New functionality updates for Microsoft Dynamics GP became available June 1 with the release of Dynamics GP 2015 R2 and those updates are now available to try through the demo environment at goERPcloud, a provider of Microsoft Dynamics AX, GP, NAV and CRM cloud trials, announced goERPcloud, today.

Microsoft released Dynamics GP 2015 R2 with new functionality for accounts payable, accounts receivable, human resources, cash flow management and other accounting features. Dynamics GP 2015 R2 is the latest release of Microsoft's powerful enterprise resource planning (ERP) solution.

"The Microsoft Dynamics GP 2015 R2 release on goERPcloud shows our commitment to offer the latest versions of Microsoft Dynamics ERP in the cloud," said Jeffrey DeMaria, goERPcloud Product Manager. "Keeping pace with Microsoft's rapid release schedule and offering those solutions in a demo environment is a major goal for goERPcloud. Our trial users and Dynamics Partners have come to expect the ability to test drive the latest versions of Microsoft Dynamics AX, GP, and NAV using goERPcloud, and we are dedicated to meeting those expectations."

Microsoft Dynamics GP 2015 was released in December 2014 and this latest release further extends and improves upon GP 2015. The goERPcloud trial experience includes a full version of Dynamics GP that can be set up and ready to test drive in four simple steps with no credit card or commitment.
