First American Payment Systems Wins the ATSI Call Center Award of Distinction For the Third Year in a Row

Fort Worth, Texas – July 9, 2015 – For the third year in a row, First American Payment Systems has won the Association of TeleServices International’s (ATSI) coveted Call Center Award of Distinction.

"We are honored to have won the Call Center Award of Distinction for the third time and we recognize our customer service team for delivering an exceptional merchant experience." said Latiffa Sharpe, Vice President of Merchant Services for First American Payment Systems. "The ATSI awards we have received over the past three years demonstrate our commitment to our merchants and to ensuring we provide best-in-class service each and every year."

The Call Center Award of Distinction was created 13 years ago to recognize the overall quality of the call center industry. Following a six month test, an independent panel of judges selected First American Payment Systems after reviewing candidates for response time, courtesy, etiquette, accuracy, proper call techniques, and customer relationship management (CRM).
