BUSINESSES IN THE UK HOLD
OVER £2bn
IN SURPLUS STOCK

How much money do you have hidden in your warehouse?
Register to sell through mytradedeals.com today and start unlocking this cash.

mytradedeals.com is a rapidly growing online marketplace where UK businesses can sell surplus/excess, used, job-lot... or brand new stock to trade buyers in a business-friendly website.

This is an independent and secure platform which can be your main way of clearing surplus stock, or you can simply treat mytradedeals.com as an additional online channel for boosting your sales of new/normal inventory.

Key points for sellers:

- Free to register for a business seller account
- Free to list any number of products
- No listing expiry, keep your products up until they sell (and reprice easily when you want)
- No clutter of consumer products on this site: it's all business buyer traffic here
- Business-friendly attitude: UK-based support including onboarding assistance with bulk inventory import

If you have large stock lists that you are keen to mass upload for sale through mytradedeals.com - great, that's what it's all about. Contact your Business Development Manager, to discuss your stock lists after completing the basic online registration form (which carries no obligations).
