LynnCo Awarded Global Trade Magazine's Top 10 Innovative Companies for 2015

Global Trade Magazine has recognized LynnCo Supply Chain Solutions as one of America's most innovative third party logistics providers for the third year in a row.

Tulsa, OK: Global Trade Magazine has recognized LynnCo Supply Chain Solutions, a leading supply chain company headquartered in Tulsa, Oklahoma, as one of America's Top 10 third party logistics providers. LynnCo once again ranked within the Innovative 3PLs category due to its commitment to pioneer a superior supply chain service model for its clients through innovation.

The Global Trade Magazine Leading 3PLs issue is developed based on research conducted by the magazine's editors. The editorial picks are unsolicited and identify core strengths within leading supply chain companies in the U.S. The issue recognizes companies that are able to fulfill manufacturers' specific needs and works as a resource for supply chain executives who rely on third-party logistics providers.

With the world wide explosion of new logistics practices, engineering breakthroughs, and technology, LynnCo is an elite, agile, and dynamic organization focused on designing the forefront of innovative solutions for complex and demand driven supply chains. LynnCo's successful deployment of this distinctive and unique methodology has yet again won it a spot on the top 10 list.

President Wendy Buxton says, "LynnCo is honored to be recognized as a Top 10 3PL for three consecutive years, specifically within the Innovative category. We are pleased that our unwavering determination in providing breakthrough solutions for supply chains has contributed to our ongoing ability to be set apart amongst a vast market of competitors."

This is the third year in a row that LynnCo has been awarded a Top 10 recognition by Global Trade Magazine. LynnCo has annually ranked among top providers in various publications and associations both nationally and locally.
